ITINERARY

DAY 1

HOME CITIES TO DEADWOOD, SD

Our journey begins this morning as we welcome passengers aboard in Moose Jaw and Regina. We will travel south, making our way toward the Canada–U.S. border. Once across the border, we'll continue through North Dakota, stopping in Williston for lunch and a chance to stretch our legs.

We will stop for coffee at the Frontier Travel Center in Bowman and then continue south into the beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota.

We will arrive early evening in Deadwood at the historic Mineral Palace Hotel. Settle in, get comfortable, and enjoy your first evening in this famous Old West town!

DAY 2

DEADWOOD, SD

Start your morning with some fun and excitement as we take part in a complimentary slot tournament! Try your luck and see how you stack up against the other players.

After the tournament, the rest of the day is yours to enjoy Deadwood at your own pace. Wander the historic Main Street, browse the unique shops, try your luck at the casinos and enjoy a meal or two at one of the many restaurants.

Whether you spend your afternoon shopping, sightseeing, playing the slots or simply soaking up the Old West atmosphere, Deadwood has something for everyone!

DAY 3

DEADWOOD, SD

Today we'll head out to explore two of the Black Hills' most famous landmarks!

Our first stop will be at the Mount Rushmore National Memorial, where you'll come face to face with the incredible carvings of four U.S. presidents.

Next, we'll make our way over to Crazy Horse Memorial, a massive mountain carving of the late Lakota Leader that is still under construction.

After a full day of sightseeing in the beautiful Black Hills, we'll return to Deadwood for another evening at the Mineral Palace Hotel.

ITINERARY

DAY 4

DEADWOOD, SD

This morning we will make a trip into Spearfish to do a little shopping!

We will arrive back in Deadwood in time for lunch. The rest of the day is yours to take in the sights.

You might want to visit the Adams Museum or Days of '76 Museum to learn about the gold rush era and the larger-than-life figures who shaped the town.

Or you could head up to Mount Moriah Cemetery, the final resting place of Wild Bill Hickok and Calamity Jane

However you choose to spend your day, Deadwood promises plenty to see, do, and enjoy.

DAY 5

DEADWOOD TO HOME CITIES

This morning we bid farewell to Deadwood and board the bus for our return journey home.

We will stop for coffee in Bowman, ND and lunch in Williston, ND before crossing the border back into Saskatchewan.

We will make our way back to our home cities cherishing the new friendships that have been made along the way!
